Why Should You Come
Out and Play for the Lutheran Mission Society?

The mission field is not all overseas. It is also right here, in our own neighborhoods, where people are struggling and hurting and hungering for the wholeness Jesus brings.

The Lutheran Mission Society heard this call over 100 years ago, and it still drives LMS ministries today — ministering to the needs of the body with food, clothing and shelter; ministering to the needs of the soul with the Good News of Jesus.

LMS Compassion Centers exist for this purpose. There are currently nine Compassion Centers in Maryland and one in York, PA where over 500 people come daily for help with the physical necessities of life and for the nourishment of spirit that only Jesus can give.

LMS Counseling (Compassionate Grace Counseling Center) is a faith-based program staffed by professional therapists whose purpose is to provide low-cost counseling to the community.

LMS Counseling accepts BlueCross/Carefirst, Aetna, and also has a low-cost sliding scale for clients without insurance.
